

KUREK ASHLEY

International Peak Performance & Success Coach

Kurek Ashley is considered to be a master for teaching strategies for personal and professional success. For the past 20 years Kurek has shown people from all walks of life, the strategies to take their lives to a higher level, mentally, financially, physically and spiritually.

Kurek is hired by companies around the world for his expertise on such subjects as Team Synergy, Peak Performance, Creating Super Sales Force, Corporate Training & Health and Fitness. He has worked with major corporations, business executives and Hollywood Stars.

After one of his presentations you will have a "Toolbox" full of strategies that will take your company and personal life to the next level. He teaches powerful motivational and empowerment sessions, that maximize your teams energy levels and get the team focused and driving towards the companies goals and creating a passion for continually performing "above the line".

Kurek has presented to hundreds of top corporations, sporting teams & institutions and is also the Success Coach for Natalie Cook and Kerri Ann Pottharst of the Australian Women's Olympic Beach Volleyball team, taking them to a GOLD Medal victory at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney.

Kurek is available for:

- Keynote Presentations
- Half & Full Day Seminars
- Team Building
- Private Success Coaching
- Public Seminar Presentations

According to Kurek the key achieving success is to 'create balance in all areas of your life' and make no mistake his presentations are invaluable with his strong message that 'you can't live by yesterdays standards' and expect great results today.

Kurek is the author of 4 top selling personal development audio programs "Fire Up Your Life", "Massive Momentum - Serious Success", "The Powers In The House" and "Power Up To Peak Performance" and the creator of The Life Success Club.
